Presentación (de la institución)

Donald Winnicott and Wilfred Bion were contemporaries. With very different origins, and intentions towards psychoanalysis, they appear to have become a couple of outstanding personalities. They had a lot in common, but interestingly made no apparent use of each others ideas

This encounter offers A Conversation that demonstrates the authentic, multifaceted fertility of Bion and Winnicott thinking with outstanding colleagues. We propose to pick out some ideas where they might have collaborated.

Guests: Angela Joyce (UK), Dominique Scarfone (Canada) Lesley Caldwell (UK), Howard B. Levine (USA), Jani Santamaría (Mexico) and Rudi Vermote (Belgium).
